

Blessed Robert Widmerpool Catholic Voluntary Academy

'The school is consulting on its admissions arrangements for 2016-17. The changes being proposed are;

- 1) Change to the requirement for completing the Supplementary form and the Supplementary Form itself such that only applicants applying under faith criteria should complete one – this is in order to align with the requirements of the Admissions Code
- 2) Change to the definition of definition Statements of Special Educational Need – to align with the newly introduced Educational Health and Care Plans (EHCPs)
- 3) Change to the definition of Previously Looked After Children – to align with the new national definition
- 4) Introduction of a footnote to clarify the reference in the definition of Catholic of 'being in full ecclesial and canonical communion with the Catholic Church'.

Consultation commenced on the 1st December and will end on 28th February 2015. Any comments can be sent to:
