Dear Brothers and Sisters

The language of the Gospel invites us to be faithful to the ways of God. There are times in our life when an obstacle arises that stops us believing in living God's way and turns us away from God. It needs to be addressed wherever possible. Each day presents us with a fresh opportunity to live God's way.

Maybe it is good to dedicate a time of prayer at the start of each day and ask God to bless us and to help us to live that day as best we can. This allows us to be faithful to the commandment of Jesus, to love, and to give witness to all the Gospel values in our words and deeds.

Many of the saints, like Mother Theresa, have found that prayer is an asset to our Christian Life. She quotes, "Give yourself fully to God. He will use you to accomplish great things on the condition that you believe much more in His love than in your own weakness".

God Bless,
Fr. Wilfred Pereppadan SCJ
