Paragraph 1

Summarise what happened

At around 2am, it had been report to UK officials that a plane heading to Manaus (Brazil) has gone missing. On-board were four children – Fred, Con, Leila and Max-, a pilot and a co-pilot. Unfortunately, the whereabouts of the passengers is still unknown and rescue teams have been deployed immediately.

Paragraph 2

Call from the plane.

What happened?

Statement from a teacher.

In the early hours of today, an emergency call was received to Brazil Airport from a distressed pilot flying to Manaus. Officials claim that the engine had begun to whine and suddenly sored upwards, losing control. Moreover, it was stated that screams of children could be heard as the engine cut and the plane plummeted to the ground. One of the children's teacher (Miss Eccles) stated, 'I am in shock, I cannot imagine what those poor children are going through. Fred is a wise boy with a love of geography. I hope he can lead them to safety.'

Paragraph 3

Emergency services sent to rescue them.

Emergency services were called and immediately deployed to the location of the radio signal, however battling through the dense terrain of the Amazon is providing difficult. 'It will take us days to manoeuvre through the thick forest. There are lots of dangers in the jungle that we have to be cautious about.' Explained one rescuer.

Paragraph 4

No calls from the plane again.

Regrettably, there has been radio silence since the final call from the plane and is no way of the emergency services knowing for certain where the plane landed. Families of the four children – Fred, Max, Con and Leila – are devastated and pray for the safe return of their children.
